Newsletter #3-2017

19 December 2017

Dear Fellows, Members, Inceptors and Affiliates,

College expresses sorrow at passing of Ms Yau Sau-wai Sania, Chief Executive Officer, New Life Psychiatric Rehabilitation Association

We learn with profound sadness of the sudden and untimely departure of Sania. A dear colleague, a close partner in the fight for better mental health services for Hong Kong. Her leadership, tireless and selfless devotion to the care for people recovering from mental illnesses have inspired colleagues in the entire mental health field. There is always the quiet word of comfort and reassuring smile amidst busy meetings. There is always the support one can count on from her and her colleagues on various mental health endeavours, ranging from pilot projects to medical students attachments. Always positive, always steady and always committed, Sania has led her colleagues in taking great strides in mental health care promotion in Hong Kong. We would like to offer our deepest condolences to her family. Sania, we are sad to have lost you so suddenly on this journey, but we shall carry on and take on the challenges that confront us with no less energy and commitment.
