Objectives 宗旨

- (i) To promote the awareness of mental health and understanding of mental illness
提高大眾對精神健康/疾病的認識
- (ii) To reduce the stigma attached to mental illness and offer opportunities of personal contact with psychiatric clients 減少社會對精神疾病的誤解並提供與精神病復元人士接觸的機會
- (iii) To offer students opportunity to participate in and organize program 為學生提供參與和籌辦活動的機會

Components of programme 計劃內容

The award program consists of three levels to reflect an increasing level of interaction with persons-in-recovery and active participation in mental health promotion and destigmatization programme.

該獎勵計劃由三個等級組成，以參與精神健康推廣及反歧視活動的積極程度以及和精神病復元人士的互動程度層層遞進。

- (i) One Star: The aim is to promote proper understanding of various mental disorders, clarification of common myths, and to address the issue of stigma and discrimination. It involves attending at least three of the public lectures organized by the Hong Kong College of Psychiatrists, to enhance students' knowledge of different mental illnesses, including Common Mental Disorders (Depression, Anxiety Disorders, Obsessive Compulsive Disorder, Post-traumatic Stress Disorder), Severe Mental Illness (Psychosis, Bipolar Affective Disorder), Old age psychiatry (Dementia, Elderly depression), Child and adolescent psychiatry (Autism, Attention-deficit Hyperactive Disorder) as well as Alcohol and Substance Abuse problems. Besides, ways to promote mental health / wellness will be included.
「米青年」一星：目的是為了加強對各種精神疾病的正確認識和了解，釐清常見的誤解並處理標籤和歧視的問題。參加者需出席至少三個由香港精神科醫學院舉辦的公開講座，以增強學生對不同精神疾病的知識，包括常見的精神疾病（抑鬱症，焦慮症，強迫症，創傷後壓力症），重性精神疾病（思覺失調，兩極情緒病），老年精神病（認知障礙症，老年抑鬱），兒童及青少年精神病（自閉症，專注力不足/過度活躍症）以及酒精和藥物濫用問題。此外，講座內容也會包括如何促進精神健康。
- (ii) Two Stars: The aim is to provide opportunities of direct contact with persons-in-recovery, which is an effective strategy to reduce stigma. It involves participating as volunteer in services to persons-in-recovery organized by the programme or in collaboration with various Non-government Organizations. Alternatively, participants could work with persons-in-recovery to provide services to other target groups, such as elderly. Participants who achieved 20 hours of volunteer work would be awarded Two Stars.
「米青年」二星：目的是提供與精神病復元人士直接接觸的機會，這是一個能有效減少歧視的方法。參與者會以義務形式參加主辦單位或與非政府組織合作舉辦的志願工作幫助精神病復元人士。另外，參與者可以和復元人士一起幫助其他目標群體，例如為老年人提供服務。參與者如達到20小時的志願工作將被獲授予二星。
- (iii) Three Stars: The aim is to promote active participation in and enhance the skills of organizing projects to serve persons-in-recovery, or to promote mental health. Participants shall work in groups. Proposals shall be submitted for endorsement regarding feasibility and appropriateness. The programme organizer would oversee the preparation and implementation of project. Examples include promotion of stress management to fellow students, or educational promotion to raise the awareness of general public about mental health and illnesses. Participants who completed the project would be awarded Three Stars.

「米青年」三星：目的是讓同學以小組合作的形式為精神病復元人士舉辦活動或向社區推廣精神健康活動，從而增強同學籌辦相關活動的能力。同學應提交有關活動的計劃書到主辦單位去審批計劃的可行性和適當性。主辦單位會監督該計劃的準備和實施。例如參與者可向校內同學分享壓力管理，或舉辦社區宣傳推廣以增加大眾或同學對精神健康及疾病的認識。參與者如完成項目將獲授予三星。

Recognition 嘉許

- (i) Certificates would be issued by The Hong Kong College of Psychiatrists to participants who completed each level before graduation from secondary school. The first award ceremony is tentatively scheduled in July 2017.
參加者於中學畢業前每完成一星可獲香港精神科醫學院頒發證書。首個嘉許禮暫定2017年7月舉行。
- (ii) Participants who achieved Three Stars would have the chance to be selected for Attachment Programmes to Department of Psychiatry of Universities or Hospitals.
獲授予三星的參加者有機會被揀選到大學或醫院精神科部門參與體驗計劃。
- (iii) Participants with outstanding performance would have the chance to be selected for a mentorship programme with psychiatrists as mentors.
表現優秀的同學有機會獲選參與精神科醫生的師友計劃。
